The two groups should be prepared to answer those questions as well as ad-hoc questions posed by other students who are not a group member. Group members are also welcome to pose questions for nonmembers.

3. Midterm exam (25%)

- The midterm exam is close-book and close-notes. It consists of multiple choice questions and short essay questions. Students are supposed to remember some factual knowledge and demonstrate an understanding of the required readings to do well in the exam. The exam will last one hour in the computer lab in McGannon Hall 118. Students are supposed to complete the exam on a computer. I will proctor the exam and no one is allowed to use a computer/laptop/cellphone to cheat.

4. Final exam (25%)

- The final exam will be similar to the midterm exam in terms of the format, duration and location. The final exam is noncumulative. Thus, students only need to prepare the course materials covered after the midterm exam.

5. Policy paper (20%)

- Students should use the analytical skills and substantive knowledge they have learned in this class to explore urgent issues facing the developing world. The paper should encompass an empirical question, a literature review and some analysis. The different components of the paper must be submitted to Canvas as the class proceeds, and the full paper must be submitted by noon, December 14. Both qualitative and quantitative analyses are acceptable, although the latter is encouraged. When citing others' works, students should adopt the American Political Science Association's style format, which is detailed in a moment. The paper should be at least five pages long, double spaced.

The final letter grade will be determined based on the following grading scale:

| | | |
|----|---|-----------|
| A | ∈ | [93, 100] |
| A- | ∈ | [90, 92] |
| B+ | ∈ | [87, 89] |
| B | ∈ | [83, 86] |
| B- | ∈ | [80, 82] |
| C+ | ∈ | [77, 79] |
| C | ∈ | [73, 76] |
| C- | ∈ | [70, 72] |
| D | ∈ | [60, 69] |
| F | ∈ | [0, 59] |

istered, students also must notify their course instructor that they wish to use their approved accommodations in the course.

Please contact the Center for Accessibility and Disability Resources (CADR) to schedule an appointment to discuss accommodation requests and eligibility requirements. Most students on the St. Louis campus will contact CADR, located in the Student Success Center and available by email at accessibility_disability@slu.edu or by phone at 314.977.3484. Once approved, information about a student's eligibility for academic accommodations will be shared with course instructors by email from CADR and within the instructor's official course roster. Students who do not have a documented disability but who think they may have one also are encouraged to contact CADR. Confidentiality will be observed in all inquiries.

Title IX

Saint Louis University and its faculty are committed to supporting our students and seeking an environment that is free of bias, discrimination, and harassment. If you have encountered any form of sexual harassment, including sexual assault, stalking, domestic or dating violence, we encourage you to report this to the University. If you speak with a faculty member about an incident that involves a Title IX matter, that faculty member must notify SLU's Title IX Coordinator that you shared an experience relating to Title IX. This is true even if you ask the faculty member not to disclose the incident. The Title IX Coordinator will then be available to assist you in understanding all of your options and in connecting you with all possible resources on and off campus.

Anna Kratky is the Title IX Coordinator at Saint Louis University (DuBourg Hall, room 36; anna.kratky@slu.edu; 314-977-3886). If you wish to speak with a confidential source, you may contact the counselors at the University Counseling Center at 314-977-TALK or make an anonymous report through SLU's Integrity Hotline by calling 1-877-525-5669 or online at <http://www.lighthouse-services.com/slu>. To view SLU's policies and for resources, please visit the following web address: <https://www.slu.edu/about/safety/sexual-assault-resources/index.php>.

Student Support Resources

justment to college life, troubling changes in mood, and chronic psychological conditions. To make an appointment, call 314-977-8255 (TALK), or visit the clinic on the second floor of Wuller Hall. For after hours needs, please press #9 after dialing the clinic number.

Wellness

All students experience stressors and challenges at some point, and seeking support is beneficial. Such challenges may be the result of academic concerns (e.g., those related to particular assignments or content in a course), or they may be more personal in nature (e.g., concerns related to relationships, mental health, loss, identities, alcohol or drugs, housing or food security, or finances, among other things). If you experience these or other difficulties, please consider seeking support from the resources available to you.

- For concerns related to this course, please contact me. I am invested in your success and will support your success in the ways I can.
- Additionally, you have access to the many resources SLU provides in support of your personal wellness. You will find a list of available resources on the Well-being page of the SLU website.

If you or someone you know is experiencing a crisis: please consult the Crisis Support and Warning Signs on the University Counseling Center website. In the spirit of cura personalis, the University sees your academic success as connected to your health and well-being and provides resources to support your holistic wellness.

Basic Needs Security

Students experiencing food insecurity, housing insecurity, and any other challenges that are impacting their personal and/or academic wellbeing are encouraged to contact the Dean of Students Office for support. Students can submit an intake form, email deanofstudents@slu.edu, or call 314-977-9378 to connect with their office. Students may also communicate directly with their instructors about any challenges they are experiencing to receive support and resource referrals.
