Greetings from the SLU University Core! It is with profound gratitude that, after many years of hard work from faculty, staff and students on all of our SLU campuses, we announce that our new common Core is launching this fall. All incoming SLU students—regardless of major, program, college or campus—will now complete this integrated 32-35 credit hour academic and experiential curriculum. In what follows, I offer announcements and relevant deadlines for the 2022-23 academic year.

Celebrating the Core Launch
In celebration of our 2022-23 launch year, the University Core has collaborated with our Saint Louis University Museum of Art to host a multi-media immersive exhibit entitled
