

CAPTE Formal Complaint Process

The only mechanism through which CAPTE can act on a concern is through a formal complaint process. The complaint must be related specifically to one or more of the Evaluative Criteria for Accreditation, or one or more of CAPTE's expectations related to program integrity. The formal complaint process can be accessed in the Accreditation Handbook, available through the CAPTE web site (www.capteonline.org).

Program Complaint Policy

This policy for addressing program complaints excludes complaints for which there is an established University, College, or Program policy or procedure, such as grade appeals, academic dismissal appeals, or allegations of harassment based on sex, race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, disability, age, sexual orientation, marital status. An individual who has a concern about a program or program staff member is welcome to file a complaint. The Program prohibits retaliation following a complaint. The Program is recognized as an opportunity for program improvement and is taken into consideration for this end in mind. A complainant can file a complaint informally and formally. The experience is confidential. The statute of limitations is three years of the date the complaint is filed.

If the complainant chooses, the complainant can contact the party(s) involved (e.g., the student, the faculty member, the Chairperson, Program Director, Director of the Program, etc.) to resolve the complaint.
