

F - b - C - R - a

Learn about it on your phone! This is the best of both worlds—high-quality Saint Louis University distance education pursued from anywhere! Each semester, each class in Saint Louis University's Online Master of Arts in Education Leadership program blends "in person" synchronous classes via Zoom with convenient synchronous learning via Canvas, our electronic learning management system.

Whether your goal is to become a principal, teacher leader, leader in industry, or a non-profit organization, this program will help you to:

- Pursue excellence in leadership through an emphasis on innovative social
- Work with expert, experienced faculty dedicated to help in students connect theory to practice.
- Be eligible, upon completion of the program, to apply for Missouri Initial Principal Certification and take the next step in your career!

"We're applying the same high-quality experience you would expect from a great Saint Louis University to our flexible program that meets the needs of our students."
- Doug Jank, Ph.D.

P a f a c a R

- 32-credit hours of on-internship approach to leadership theory, practice application, and research.
- Internship opportunities allow students to experience their leadership skills in a real-world setting.
- Typical program completion in two years.
- Accelerate or slow your pace as needed.
- Online with both live and asynchronous and synchronous instruction.
- Includes 3-day on-campus workshop experience in the summer.

- FREE online application
- Official transcripts
- Current resume
- Professional portfolio
- Online letter of recommendation

ca Ad

Fall Semester: Jun 15
 Spring Semester: November 1
 Summer Semester: April 1

314-773-2222

slu_d@slu.edu

"This program prepares students to become school principals and practice leaders in your profession. It is a rigorous program that prepares students to lead in school districts, non-profit organizations, and other educational settings. Students will be competitive in the job market and will be able to lead groups of students and staff in their schools. This program is a great choice for students who want to become school principals and practice leaders in their profession."

- Kristin Hill, Ed.D.