The Marcella Cohen Scholarship

The Home Health Care Foundation has designated a scholarship in honor of Marcella Cohen, the first CEO of Visiting Nurse Association of Greater St. Louis.

The Charles How Wallace Scholarship

The Home Health Care Foundation has designated a scholarship in honor of Charles How Wallace. Mr. Wallace retired in 2006 as Chairman of the Home Health Care Foundation after providing 37 years of service to the VNA Foundation. Mr. Wallace was one of three VNA officials who founded the VNA Foundation in 1975. In 1993, the VNA Foundation changed its name to the Home Health Care Foundation, and it continues to pursue its original purpose of annually funding nursing scholarships to the local nursing schools in St. Louis.

The Teddi Johnson Scholarship

The Teddi Johnson Scholarship

Ms. Johnson served on the Home Health Care Foundation Board for more than ten years, and was actively involved in the development and administration of the Foundation's scholarship programs. Her administrative responsibilities included overseeing the Foundation's programs in the areas of nursing, physical therapy, and occupational science and therapy. Ms. Johnson's concern and dedication to the work of the Foundation provided opportunities for nursing, physical therapy, and occupational students in the St. Louis area.

Ms. Johnson worked at the Visiting Nurse Association of Greater St. Louis for more than 32 years as a staff nurse.

Ms. Johnson worked at the Visiting Nurse Association of Greater St. Louis for more than 32 years as a staff nurse, Aide Supervisor, Nursing Supervisor, and District Manager, and retired as Vice President of the hospital in St. Louis.

Ms. Johnson worked in Clinical Services, having served in that position as Head Nurse at a major hospital in St. Louis.

Ms. Johnson served on the American Diabetes Association Board for many years, and

Ms. Johnson served on the City of St. Louis Health Care Commission, which was created to help guide the city's health care policies. She also served on a number of local agency boards and maintain ancillary health care careers in St. Louis.

Ms. Johnson graduated from the Jewish Hospital School of Nursing in 1959, studying on a full scholarship, and was one of the first African-Americans to be admitted to the school. She later studied at Saint Louis University and enrolled in Management classes at Meramec Community College in St. Louis.

Ms. Johnson graduated from the RN Transfer Program at Meramec Community College, St. Louis.
