Saint Louis University Program Assessment Plan

Program Assessmen(Majors: Greek & Latin B.A. Program)
Department: Language, Literatures & Cultures

College/School: Arts & Sciences

Person(s) Responsible for Implementing the Plan: Classics Program Coordinator

Date Submitted: 11/1/17

NOTEGiven the nature of the Latin & GreekA, Interpretive Communication, Presentational Communications and Intercultural Competence and in reading only will be assessed? 7.8(cul) 6.334-culee a 2l b 2446 n n i 37 0 ug (e) -- 38920.72 re f EM0.193 n

Curriculum Mapping	Assessment Methods	Use of Assessment Data
--------------------	--------------------	------------------------

Interpretive Communication:

Presentational Communication: Students will be able to present information, concepts and ideas able tatin literature & culture to inform, explain, narrate and persuade on a variety of topics using appropriate media and adapting to various audiences	In the last semester of the B.A. LATN 2010 and / or GK 2010Results in the last undergraduate semester at SLU would show students' advancer in relation to their previous intermediatedow assessment that took place in LATN and/or GK 2010.	Direct Measure s: 1 Oral Interview	The Classics Program Coordinator compiles the results of both the dire and indirect measures across the program in order to gain insights into the gains made by students, the success of instruction and needs for improvement. Based on the B. Aprogram report, the Classics Program Coordinator report to the Classics program at the end of each academic year with recommendations for all ges or improvements to the curriculum, implementation and assessment plan.
--	--	---	---