

appendix for rubric.
Graduate faculty reports on each student's performance in coursework and overall academic premance will be discussed by the graduate faculty once per semester These reports result in an annual review for each graduate student.	The graduate program director will make note of trends in the end of semester student evaluations and identify areas for discussion and improvement during regular monthly faculty meetings. Patterns of unsatisfactory performance will be examined and curricular changes aimed at improving outcomesvill be discussed by the graduate faculty.

	I and the second	II.	l I
4	Demonstrate the ability to	This skill is primarily developed	The acquisition of this proficiency is conceptualize, develop and bring to	throughout the student's dissertation	assessed primarily by the student's successful completion an original,	research coursework (HCE 6980).	dissertation committee, which examines sustained and coherent independent		the quality of the student's written research project that contributes to the	•	product (dissertation) and their ability field (i.e. the dissertation).		to defend their project to an interdihÑž6 • A&àÞ—bqŠ! dï"" þ! Q áDc¦-@< ù- ™gÍ@ o -0.048(d)-6.(r)-1.40.0484 ethics mediation role plays.

the faculty annually for discussion.

_
	The faculty will review and modify the assessment plan every four years.

3. On what schedule/cycle will faculte view and, if needed, modify this assessment plan?

PhD in Health Care