

Title 10 of the Code of Federal Regulations (10CFR), Part 19, requires that all employees have access to the information listed below.

The following information is available by contacting Saint Louis University Environmental Health and Safety, Caroline Bldg., Room C305; Phone: 977-8609

*Regulations related to radioactive materials use; 10CFR19 – Notices, Instructions and Reports to Workers: Inspection and Investigations; 10CFR20 – Standards for Protection Against Radiation; 10CFR35 – Medical Use of Byproduct Material

*Individual radiation dosimetry records (Request for personal radiation dosimetry information should be made in writing and include full name, social security number, date of birth, department of employment)

*The operating procedures applicable to licensed activities

*Notices of violation relating to radiologic working conditions and licensee responses

*The license and license conditions authorizing the use of radioactive materials at Saint Louis University

* An electronic version of this form is available at https://www.slu.edu/research/faculty-resources/research-integrity-safety/environmental-health-